THE MADISON JOURNAL

Affects to be the leading Republican newspaper in Wisconsin, and to indicate this, it has assumed the word "State," as part of its title.—Published at the capital, the center of the State, and, by its position, having the best facilities for accurate information in regard to matters connected with the State Departments, it should have a character for integrity, reliability and complete acquaintance with the affairs of State, which should make it sought for, and trusted in, as a faithful exponent of Republican principles and of the Republican party And as it has opened a general issue with us and those members of the Senate, who refuse to follow its dictation, in opposing all legislation until the question of who is Governor, is judicially determined, we propose to review its course candidly, and tell it some truths, which it may not hear from the mouths of its partisan friends.

The Journal is not only a political, but a personal opponent of the most prominent official members of the last State Administration, and has indulged in personal assaults upon them, which, in the judgment of many Republicans, whose opinions are entitled to respect, are not justified by honorable political warfare. It is owing, in a great measure, to its course, that the last canvass partook so much of a personal character, that the great principles at issue between the parties were, to a considerable extent, lost sight of, and that the chief and almost only question discussed, is, whether Barstow or Bashford is the legally elected Governor. And the heat of its partizan and personal feelings have led it so often to make statements respecting the State officers and their official conduct, which it has been obliged afterward to modify, qualify or retract, that it became a matter of remark throughout the State, among leading Republicans, and many Republican presses were led into error, by copying and crediting its statements, So much so, that, without regarding it as intending to misrepresent, we have, for the last year, taken its statements with a great deal of caution. We know that it has greatly misrepresented us, and if it would do this toward a political coadjutor, when party interests would dictate a different course, is it strange that it should thus act toward "Barstow and the balance," under the promptings of partizan animosity and personal hate.

The Journal, doubtless, represents the feelings of a portion—it may be a majority portion—of the Republican party. But even that majority ought to have discernment enough to perceive that the cordial coöperation of the whole party is essential to its success, and that supercilious treatment of a portion of the party, and an indisposition to treat all the members of it as entitled to equal rights, can end only in disaster and defeat. But the Journal, instead of being the faithful representative and organ of the party, has been the organ of the old Whig wing, or that portion of it who regard the Republican party as organized and existing mainly for the benefit of Whigs—whose real feelings have, from time to time, been exhibited by the Janesville Gazette, Fond du Lac Herald, Mineral Point Tribune, and Platteville American, and which found significant expression in the words of a Madison Whig, when the name of E. D. Holton was proposed to him, as a candidate for Governor, on the morning of the last State Convention:—"Damn it! there is no use of talking—We must have a Whig!"

During the past canvass, the Journal has displayed a bitterness toward the State Administration which could scarcely grow out of mere political opposition. It has had the Patriot for its right bower, and those Democrats who, from personal spite, curse Barstow, and, from genuine pro-slavery sympathy, support the Nebraska bill and the Fugitive Slave Act, have been its yoke-fellows. It lauded I. P. Walker, and helped manufacture political capital for State Senator in opposition to Nelson Z. Strong, the Republican candidate. One of its editors made a journey to Waukesha, to attend Walker's first meeting there, and his presence there was understood to countenance the plan of transferring the Republican vote to that arch-traitor to Freedom and Prince of Doughfaces. And it never said a word in favor of the Republican candidate.

It is prompt to repel every imputation upon the character and conduct of its own particular friends. But it heard ex-Senator Walker charge us, at Waukesha, with the most malignant falsehoods in our published statements of his public acts, and again saw the charges spread out and declared proved in the columns of the Patriot, before the community which it daily addressed, and though it saw our statements proved from the Congressional Records, and the falsehoods of Mr. Walker and the Patriot made manifest, yet it uttered not a word in our defense. On the same principle, we suppose, that its chief writing editor kept silence, recently, while a Walker-and-Patriot Democrat, in his sanctum, cursed us with the grossest oaths, and called us a "damned scoundrel, who could be bought up at any time by anybody for fifty dollars," and uttered not a word of remonstrance, though this violent cursing and abuse continued for ten or fifteen minutes.—This may be etiquette in the Journal office but if any one should attempt thus to abuse and insult one of the editors of the Journal, in our office, he would leave at once, peaceably, at our request, or go out, "neck and heels," if he hesitated, and we had physical strength to eject him. We mention these things, not by way of complaint, but as signs of the inner soul of the Journal.

It is by association with Democrats, such as he of the Madison Patriot—who are the most servile of their class on the Slave question, and who wish to destroy both Barstow and the Republican party—who wish to urge Republicans on to indiscretions and violence, that the Journal has been worked up to such a pitch of feeling, that it can brook no opposition to its will, and it stands, with whip in hand, ready to crack it over the heads of all—editors and legislators, who do not pronounce its watchwords without hesitation. It gives the countersign for the Republican army, and if a Republican soldier can not or will not echo it, he must be court-martialled. Its programme was, Barstow must be repudiated by the Legislature without investigation, and it must adjourn without delay, and those Senators—whose characters for intelligence and integrity are above suspicion or reproach—who refused to ratify that programme, because they saw no authority, precedent, nor reason, for such a course, were charged, by it, with cowardice and weakness of the spinal column—were stigmatized by those terms, which, by long use, have been set apart as descriptive of a doughface.

We replied to this wanton attack upon these Senators, and the Journal rejoins, but does not let its readers see what we said. It says:

"The Milwaukee Free Democrat censures our course in favoring the adjournment of the Legislature without the transaction of any business."

Our readers will remember, that we said that the reasons it gave for such adjournment, we regarded as not valid, and that they had no pertinency to the issue now brought before the Supreme Court, in regard to the claims of Coles Bashford. If it is because no legislation is needed—and that was the chief ground of its arguments—that is an independent proposition, having no reference to the gubernatorial contest. Nor does it attempt to show that it has. But it now says, that by proceeding to legislation, it gives the Barstow press an opportunity to claim such action as a recognition of the right of Gov. Barstow to the office he now holds. Suppose it does. Are we to be governed in our action by what the Barstow press says of us? Do what we may, and they will claim that he is rightfully Governor. Better be guided by what is right, than attempt to shape our course to avoid the remarks of our enemies. The Journal says:

"We believe that a majority of the people and a majority of the Republican press will concur with us."

It is possible they may, but if it were so, it does not prove the correctness of the Journal's position. Majorities are not always right.—Truth is often in a minority in this world. Nor do we recognize the right of the majority to tyrannize over and insult the minority. It proceeds:

"The course of the Free Democrat, in regard to the late canvass; the gingerly placidity with which it comments upon and glosses over glaring abuses of official power, violations of law, and even palpable iniquities like the Spring Creek returns; the gentle love-pats and bantlerings which it bestows upon the bogus Governor's message, with the false statements, the insulting bravado, and pro-slavery sentiments which constitute the document, are exciting the astonishment of its real friends, and the secret contempt and derision of its enemies."

These are grave charges, which have no foundation in truth. That the misrepresentations which have been made of us by the Journal and its friends have done something to produce such an impression as it declares exists, is doubtless true. When we received such a bitter cursing in the Journal office, last week, one of the Journal stripe present seconded the assault, by saying, it was generally understood around here, that we were "bought up." And similar charges have been bandied about by the Journal's sympathisers, in regard to those Senators who voted to receive the Governor's Message.

We have never uttered a word of apology for a "false statement" or a "pro-slavery sentiment" of the Governor's Message, nor have we raved about it, with the passion of a blind partizan.—We have spoken of it briefly and honestly, and when we get ready to review it thoroughly, we shall do so, according to our best judgment, uninfluenced by the jeers and spite of the Journal or its backers. The next paragraph is but a rehash and repetition of its former charges, and is basely false:

"When a paper, which has aspired to be the leader of the the liberal sentiment of the State, the especial advocate of justice and freedom, suddenly, when, by the vilest acts of fraud the verdict of the people at the ballot-box has been disregarded and reversed, becomes either silent or apologetic in relation to those frauds, it may well excite surprise."

Our aspirations are before the public in the columns of our paper. We have no other aspiration than to make a newspaper worthy of the confidence of candid, honest, thinking, liberty-loving men. That we have succeeded, to some extent, our subscription list and the financial condition of the FREE DEMOCRAT are the best proof, It continues:

"In relation to the action of the Senators, we merely stated our individual opinion, but attributed to them no improper motive."

It charged them with being afraid to do what it declared to be a duty—with "an obvious and melancholy spinal weakness, and headed its attack upon them, "Spinal Weakness in the Senate." It applied to them opprobrious epithets for their votes—such as are applied only to doughfaces, and traitors to Freedom. That is what it did. It proceeds:

"They [these Senators] hold very different views respecting the State Canvass, and the merits of the suit pending in the Supreme Court from those expressed by the Free Democrat."

We hold, and have uniformly expressed, the same views they have in relation to the merits of the suit pending, and we have said, from the first, that there were frauds somewhere, but we have not felt justified in saying, from the examination we made, that the State Canvassers were guilty of fraud. And we have been fiercely attacked and our motives impugned, simply because we could not, and would not, join with our accusers, in saying, that the State Canvassers were villains, and that the Supreme Court would certainly give Bashford the office. We hold that a public journalist has no right to to bring such charges against public officers, without positive proof. And such proof we have not yet seen. The evidence which has since been adduced, gives a different aspect to the canvass, but that evidence neither we nor the public had then seen.

The Journal concludes its ukase, by the following Papal decision, and excommunication from the pale of the righteous:

"The moral eye-sight of the Free Democrat seems blinded or perverted. It has put on rose-tinted spectacles, and injustice and crime, seen through the delicious haze in which they envelope all things, no longer appear repulsive, but, on the contrary, 'most fair to look upon.'"

We have a few general remarks to make on the article and course of the Journal, and those who sympathize with it in its attacks upon us. We spent considerable time and some money, to make a personal examination of the election returns, from all those Counties where there was any division of sentiment, respecting those returns, or any doubt as to the real vote. We inspected these returns carefully and impartially, took copious notes, copied many of the returns, and, on our return home, made a very full statement of the facts, of the result of our observations, and the conclusions which we drew from them. These conclusions were, that Barstow had the certificate, and Bashford a majority of the legal votes. We said we believed that fraud had been practised somewhere, but that from the examination we had made we did not think fraud could be proved against the State Canvassers. We further said that we had some doubt, from the knowledge we then had, of the success of a contest in the Supreme Court, but expressly stated that we had not examined the proofs of the fraud: we believed had been committed, and that our opinion on that point was not worth much, and added, as our advice, that Mr. Bashford, if, on looking over the whole ground, felt confident that he had a clear case ought to press his suit and if otherwise, not. These conclusions, thus frankly stated, have been the sole foundation of all the reproach cast upon us by the Journal and a portion of the Republican press.

Had these presses merely taken our statements, and drawn from them conclusions different from ours, we should have had no ground of complaint. But they did not stop here. The Journal and others went further and questioned our integrity, intimated that our personal relations with the Governor and other State officers had something to do with our report, and some of them charged us with trying to shield the State Canvassers, in the commission of a fraud. The editors of some of these papers and their friends, publicly and privately, have spread broad-cast, imputations upon our character and motives, and some of them have not hesitated to assert that we are in league with Barstow, and are paid to uphold his administration. That all these things have proceeded from an honest desire to promote the public weal, we do not believe. They are in keeping with the same treatment we received from those maligner, when they marshalled their friends in hostile parties, and swallowed the Baltimore Platform, with their Fugitive Slave Acts and denials of the Right of Free Discussion, at a gulp. The most charitable construction we can put upon their course, is, that they have become so excited by the frauds which have been committed, and by the failure of their cherished hopes, and carried away by partizan feelings, that they are ready to trample under their feet all who will not unite with them in forwarding their plan of correcting the fraud by legislative action, or cannot subscribe to the infallibility of their opinion.

We say, in conclusion, once for all—we shall not depart from the course we have marked out for ourself, for friend or foe. We believe that Coles Bashford has a majority of the legal votes of the electors of the State, and, from the proofs that have recently been made public, that he should pursue all legal measures to vindicate his rights before the Supreme Court.—We hold to the principles of the Republican party, and shall maintain them, despite the flatteries and frowns of our enemies or friends.—We shall oppose Governor Barstow and his party, in every act which contravenes Republican principles, and shall do it in an open and courteous manner. But we shall not descend to low personalities, nor mingle, with political warfare the gall and bitterness of personal hate. We shall not invade the sanctuary of domestic life, nor assume that the State officers are villians of so deep a dye, that no act however vile, and no motive however base, may not be safely and justly attributed to them. We shall hold them responsible for their public acts, and judge them by that standard. If this is not satisfactory to our Republican friends, they must remain unsatisfied. We estimate, at its just value, the worth of popular favor.—Twice or thrice, since we have edited the Free Democrat, have we known the same class of men ready to mob us, and afterwards to shout our praise, and we are willing to bide the sober judgment of the people, when the madness of the present hour has passed away, and the misrepresentations of our cotemporaries have been corrected by the the hand of time.

But we repeat, with an emphasis to which our deepest convictions respond, that if these recriminations and aspersions of motives are to be continued, and the Journal is to pursue the course it has begun, in regard to Senators and others who dissent from it and its line of policy, we would not give a straw for the future prospects of the Republican party. It cannot succeed, and it ought not to succeed, under such an administration and such discipline, as the Journal has prescribed for it, and all good men will rejoice at its dissolution rather than submit to an insolent dictation, which has not the redeeming merit of remarkable ability, genius or tact, and which savors more of the despotism of the Slave plantation, than of Republican equality and fraternity.

Hon. Timothy Walker.

The telegraph, yesterday, brought us intelligence of the death of Hon. Timothy Walker, of Cincinnati—a man whose loss will be widely and deeply felt. He was one of the early residents of Cincinnati, and has done much towards developing that city, and aiding it in its rapid and unparalelled progress. As a jurist and a lawyer, Mr. Walker stood preëminent, and no one has done more than he for the jurisprudence of the West. He was universally admired for his talents and ability, and beloved for his private virtues and worth. As a politician he took a warm interest in the Republican movement, and lent his influence in favor of freedom. The indirect cause of his death is thus narrated by the Chicago Tribune:

He was designated to preside over a Republican mass meeting in Cincinnati last August, and would have fulfilled the appointment but for untimely accident which prematurely terminated his life. While in his carriage on his way to his country seat, it came in collision with another vehicle, by which he was thrown upon the ground and two of his ribs broken.—An injury was inflicted on his lungs, which resulted in a pulmonary disease. He lingered for some time—once recovering and resuming his professional duties for a few days, was again prostrated, and on Tuesday morning last closed a useful and honorable life.

THE PRINTERS FESTIVAL.

The Printers of Milwaukee, with quite a large number of ladies and invited guests, met at Concert Hall, last evening, to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the birth-day of Benjamin Franklin. At about nine o'clock the company seated themselves at the bountifully-ladened tables, and whiled away a pleasant hour in discussing the excellence of the viands, and in an agreeable interchange of thoughts and views, which had a happy effect in tending to produce a cordial and fraternizing spirit.

The meeting was then called to order by Gen'l King, the presiding officer, who read the following toasts which were interspersed with stirring and enlivening music from an excellent band:

1. OUR GOVERNMENT—National, State, and Municipal.—May we never disgrace them, and may they never disgrace us.

Music—Hail Columbia.

2. THE FLAG OF OUR COUNTRY.—May the brilliancy of the "Old Thirteen" continue to attract and add to its galaxy of "bright, particular stars," until we can say, in truth, "The whole boundless continent is ours," and nought but illimitable oceans shall bound "The land of the free and the home of the brave."

Music—The Star Spangled Banner.

3. WASHINGTON.—In silence.

4. BEN. FRANKLIN.—The common sense Philosopher—the practical Savant—the American Statesman—the type of his profession. May his memory ever be cherished.

Music—A Man's a Man for a' that.

5. THE PRESS.—The terror of despots—the hope of the Million.

Music—The Marseillaise.

6. THE PRINTING OFFICE.—The School for the Million, whose sticks are more efficient than birch, and whose rules are always respected—the only school where knowledge is taught by steam. Long may it continue to send its graduates to the halls of Congress.

Music—Jordan's a hard road to travel.

7. PROF. MORSE.—He who trained the untamed lightning to the newsboy's team.

Music—The Thunderstorm.

8. MILWAUKEE.—Beautiful by nature, and prosperous by human industry and judicious enterprise May her star of progress, now above the horizon, rapidly and continually approach the zenith, but never reach it.

Music—Home, Sweet Home.

9. WOMAN.—The last, best token of God's goodness to man. May her fair form ever be locked up in the chaste arms of men, with the silvery quoins of love.

Music—Katy Darling.

10. OUR FIREMEN.—The protectors of our homes when they most need protection—ever ready to "douse the glim"—may their real worth be appreciated.

Music—The Fire Alarm.

11. THE ARMY AND NAVY.—Our pride and boast—united, invincible. A standard around which, in time of need, every American will promptly rally.

The following letters were then read by the Chairman:

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 17, 1856.

To the President of the Printer's Festival:

DEAR SIR:—It was my intention, and I shaped my calculations to be present with you this evening, on the occasion of celebrating the birthday of BENJAMIN FRANKLIN. An unexpected engagement since 9 o'clock this morning, will deprive me of the anticipated pleasure. I believe I am among the oldest of the craft in this State, and I assure you, I take a deep interest in their success and prosperity. For twenty-seven years it has been my pride and privilege, whatever my immediate occupation might be, to rank myself, by trade or profession, a Printer, and if my advice will influence them, it will be my highest pleasure to hail my sons as Printers by trade, when they shall have become men.

Please book me for whatever you may deem my share of the expenses of your entertainment, and accept assurances of my sincere regret that I cannot be with you. Please accept the following as a sentiment:

The Printers and the Press of Wisconsin—From the days when the Green Bay Democrat was published and edited by A. G. ELLIS, and the Milwaukee Advertiser by Messrs. D. H. RICHARDS and Col. CROCKER, it will compare favorably, for skill, enterprise and intelligence, with that of any other State in the Union.

Yours Truly, J. A. NOONAN

MILWAUKEE, January 17, 1856.

Chairman of Franklin Festival:—

Worn out by the incessant toils attendant upon the foremanship of a morning paper for the past two years, I am debarred the privilege of commingling with our noble "craft" in their first celebration of Franklin's birth day, in this city, to-night.

Wishing you all manner of joy on the occasion, I submit the following sentiment:

The Printers of Milwaukee.—Bright * * * in the frontispiece of our city's history—when fairly justified and put to press, may their motto be—"PRESS ONWARD"

A. H. BURDICK.

Champion Vaughan, being suggested by the chairman, and called upon by the company, spoke briefly of the occasion that had drawn those present together, and made a few other general remarks, with such thoughts as the moment suggested, and concluded by offering the the following sentiment.

THE LADIES.—Their forms are types of loveliness, and so harmoniously justified, as to leave a clear impression, and lock-up the affections.

J. S Vincent responded to a toast on Benjamin Franklin, and closed with the following sentiment:

THE ART PRESERVATIVE OF ALL ARTS.—

Whose voice hath burst the silence,
And whose light is flung upon the darkness,
Flashing jewels upon a robe of light,
And harmony bounding out of chaos.

Thos. F. Withrow, of the Janesville Free Press, was next introduced to the company by the Chairman, and made a very happy speech, in which he eulogized Milton as one of the earliest and staunchest advocates of a Free Press, and thought that while celebrating the birth-day of Franklin, we should not omit to remember the great and good John Milton.—Mr. Withrow's remarks upon the necessity of having an untramelled press, were appropriate and well received.

Mr. Fillmore put the company in a roar, by his amusing jokes, and proposed the following resolution, which was heartily and unanimously adopted, and received with thundering applause:

Resolved.—That we, the Printers of Milwaukee, will hereafter celebrate the 17th of January, as one of the national holidays.

Mr. Hicks, of the American, was called out and made some general remarks, concluding by offering the following toasts from W. E Cramer.

Our Profession.—When rightly pursued, renders its followers intelligent patriotic, and generous.

The Printers craft and his love of Country.—A natural and a noble union.

Mr. Hicks also proposed the following sentiment for himself:

The Composing Rule.—

When tyranny shall be o'er come,
And from its throne be hurled,
The ruler, then, it seems to me,
A steel composing rule will be,
Best ruler of the world

Volunteer Toasts.

By Mr. MESERVEY:

The Type—The soldier of civilization, whose shooting stick is more potent than a revolver, and whose balls cause the light of joy and happiness—not the darkness of sorrow and despair.

By E. G. ROSS:—The old Ramage Printing Machine—The Bridge of Light Connecting the 18th and 19th Centuries—May its disabled and now useless frame, like the battered ribs of "Old Ironsides," be ever hallowed in the recollection of a grateful people, as a memento of a glorious epoch.

By E. C. SACKETT:

PRINTERS—May ample time be given them all to correct and revise the errors marked on life's margin, so that a clean proof may be presented for the inspection of the Great Reader.

By Mr. MESERVEY:

The Printer's Devil—The foundation for a man, whose inky face only renders an impression less difficult.

By H. A. STARR:

The Printers—May they never be locked up for want of a quoin (coin.)

By N. L. BURDICK:

The Millennium of the Press—When the Sentinel shall hug "The Forty;" the American kiss the "Farrener;" the Free Democrat sit down with kidnappers, and the Wisconsin shake hands with Noonan.

By GEO. A. TREYSER:

The Printer's Devil—Harmless when in his right place. (Pouring a glass of liquor into an old shoe.)

By LEWIS BLEYER:

Our Festival—The PHAT test take of the season.

By WM. MERRELL:

To Franklin—May his memory ever be fresh as the evergreen in the minds of the American people; may his life's history be the model of Young America, and Printers in particular.

By E. G. ROSS:

The Modern Steam Printing Machine—May its thundering tones ever reverberate, and its ponderous cylinder continue to roll, until error and falsehood shall be crushed beneath its iron tread, and revolutions and national epochs shall be as mile-stones in its progress in the spread of intellectual life and light.

By Mr. MESERVEY:

The Newspaper and the Newsboy—The Jupiter and the Mercury of Christendom.

By H. K. W. AYERS:

The Printer—To the tyrant, a trimmer; to the indolent an item of stumbling and a stone of offense; but to him who will advocate the right of free speech, the love of liberty and faith in God, in them will find a foundation broad and strong enough to sustain the fabric of a glorious Republic, whose limits the world shall only circumscribe.

By Mr. MESERVEY:

A Free Press—The sure and sufficient safeguard of a Nation's liberties.

By H. L. WILLIAMS:

The Stick and Rule—Small, but significant mementoes of the power that sways the minds of the million.

By H. A. STARR:

The Printers of Milwaukee—May virtue ever direct their actions with respect to themselves, justice to those with whom they deal, mercy, love and charity to all mankind.

By CHAS. MEIGS, JR.:

Our City Press—

Educator of the American and Free Democrat, the patriot's Sentinel, and the people's Friend; a Journal of the News, and devoted to the interests of Wisconsin. May it receive a hearty support from the Badgers.

By Mr. MESERVEY:

Our Common Schools—Institutions, such as America only can boast of—fitting auxiliaries of the Press. May they enjoy the patronage and confidence of the American public.

By LORENZO CROUNSE:

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN—The Printer, Patriot and Philosopher—May the remembrance of his many noble deeds and virtues, of his invaluable services to the cause of American Liberty, and of his sympathy and benevolence for the oppressed and down-trodden, ever occupy a sacred spot in the memory of all Americans.

Our Guests—Let none depart without taking a good impression with them.

As it was now drawing towards the "noon of night," and some anxiety was manifested to "trip it" in the "mazy dance" Gen'l KING, who had done so much towards making the festival pass off agreeably, and who, as a presiding officer, had won the admiration of all, after indulging in a few, beautiful remarks, embracing appropriate sentiments, and couched in pleasing language, adjourned the meeting. The "festal board" was, ere long, removed, and amidst music, and the dance, the hours flew by on the wings of thought, and the bright smiles that wreathed each face, betokened happy hearts and pure gratification.

And thus past the first commemoration of Franklins Birth-day by the Printers of Milwaukee, which, we hope, will be yearly repeated, and which we are sure will ever be a happy memory for all to recall, who participated in its enjoyment.

Congressional.

In the House, yesterday, Mr. Cumback of Indiana, offered a resolution which he afterwards withdrew, declaring Mr. Mace Speaker.

Mr. Dunn, in explaing his course, said he would submit to no caucus which presented to him the name of Banks.

The remark of Mr. Dunn, stimulated Messrs. Sage, of New York, Brenton, Pennington, and Campbell, of Ohio, to participate in the debate which involved the action of the Representatives respecting their candidates for Speaker. Messrs. Boyce, McQueen, and Keitt, of South Carolina, being now satisfied with Mr. Richardson's explanation, have returned to his support.

Faulkner, of Virginia, intends, if a Speaker is not elected by Monday, to submit a proposition that members resign, and the House, adjourn to meet again the 1st Monday in May next.

Arrival of the America.

The Steamship America from Liverpool (England) arrived at New York yesterday and brings intelligence that the anticipated peace prospects were fast diminishing.

Flour down 6d. Wheat heavy. Corn declining. Provisions dull. Consols down 1 per cent. Money stringent.

Filibusterers.

It is a little remarkable, says the Albany Evening Journal, that within the past two years no less than seven expeditions have been set afoot in the United States, against countries with whom we were at peace—to Make Sonora, against her will, an independent Republic; one to rescue Tamaulipas from the control of her own inhabitants; one to aid imaginary revolutions in Cuba; one to give undesired "succor" to Ireland; one to occupy a grant of land which Costa Rica denies ever having made: one to help foreigners to overthrow the native Government of Nicaragua; and one to perform the same office for Lower California. All of these paraded the America Flag, and declared themselves missionaries of Freedom, and every one of them was made up, mainly if not wholly, of the defenders and extenders of Slavery.

FRIDAY:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::JAN. 18.

PUBLIC MEETING AT YOUNGS HALL—FOX RIVER VALLEY RAILROAD.—We were called upon last evening by Messrs. PHILO BELDEN and NELSON R. NORTON, who are on a visit to this city, to ascertain what our business men are willing to do, towards constructing the Fox River Valley Railroad, from Rochester to this city—and for this purpose a meeting will be held at Youngs Hall this evening, and all who feel an interest in the matter should attend.

The first division of this Road, extending from the State line, to Rochester, a distance of 16 miles is under contract, and the work is progressing vigorously, and it is expected this section will be completed and in running order early in the summer. The Fox River Road in Illinois is now completed to Richmond, a short distance below the State line, and when completed to Rochester, will require but about 25 miles of Road, to connect it with Milwaukee.

It strikes us that the construction of this Road, is of no little importance to our city, when we consider the connections it will have through the Roads which it crosses, and also the fact that it furnishes a direct line of Road, south-west from Milwaukee, extending through the State of Illinois, together with the fact, that this line is located through one of the most fertile and densely populated portions of our State.

It will secure Milwaukee, permanently the trade of the Western portion of Racine and Kenosha counties and that of a large, rich and populous section west of the line of the Road; also the trade of an extensive region in Northern Illinois. Our business men will doubtless perceive the benefit to accrue to Milwaukee by this trade, and will gladly embrace the opportunity offered, to secure it. The subject will be laid before our citizens at Youngs Hall, this evening, and all who feel an interest, or wish any information in regard to this enterprise, should attend, that they may be able to act understandingly in the matter.

POLICE COURT.—Abel Hawley, John H. Cartol and Gustave Ritchel, were fined $2 each this forenoon, for fast driving over Spring St., Bridge.

The case of Thos. Pltiock for stealing from the Milwaukee House when it was burnt, was commenced this forenoon, but was not concluded when went to press.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Mabbetts & Braed sold yesterday, lots 4 and 5, Block 139, First Ward, with the Green House, to L. W. Kennedy, for $6,000.

HOGS.—Sheriff Conover purchased of Joel Hood, yesterday, five hogs, weighing in the aggregate 2179 pounds. The largest hog weighed 656 pounds. They are for the use of the Jail and the price paid was $6,50 per hundred.

METHODIST CHURCH.—A new Methodist Church edifice is to be erected in the First Ward.

☞ We are informed that a boy was so badly injured in the Fifth Ward, by the falling of a tree upon him this forenoon, that he survived but a short time.

DEER FREIGHT.—The Madison Patriot says:

On Tuesday last, two immense wagon loads of undressed, eviscerated deer passed by our office, towards the depot. They were from the excellent sporting ground of the Upper Wisconsin, and are destined for the N. Y. market.

We also notice plenty of Bear meat in town. This winter has been remarkably propitious for sportsmen.

ACCIDENT.—The Horicon Argus of the 16th inst. says:

Last Thursday afternoon, an accident occurred on the Depot grounds, in the caving of a bank, by which one of the workmen, an Irishman, had his leg seriously injured. Fears are entertained that the limb must be amputated. He has since been removed to Milwaukee.

HIGH PRICE.—The Berlin Courant of the 15th inst says:

Pork has been sold as high as $3 per hundred. Lard has sold as high as 16 cts, per pound. Butter at 30 to 33 cts. per pound, and Beans $2,00 to $3,000 per bushel.

N. W. Wheeler has become conected with the editorial department of the Barraboo Republic. D. K. Noyes, the senior editor of the paper, represents his district in the Assembly this winter. In a letter to his paper, he gives quite a ludicrous account of the inaugration Ball at Madison.

The Jefferson Co., Jeffersonian, of the 11th inst., says.

Preparations for the erection of some new building is going forward, and we learn that they are such as will greatly improve the appearance of our village. Potatoes are becoming a scarce commodity, as the "31 degrees below zero weather" invaded the sacred privacy of the cellar, and breathed destruction upon every individual potato.

Hay is also in demand, and is selling from six to eight dollars per ton. Dry fire wood is worth one dollar and 75 cents per cord.

The Old Story.

The Cincinnati Gazette of the 16th ult, has an account of "another" Abolitionist tarred and feathered at Lexington. Ky. Thus the story runs:—

An article appeared in the Ohio Statesman, (Pro-Slavery) published at Columbus, signed "J. B.," giving the writer's veiw of Slavery, and "of the institution" as it existed in Kentucky. That article caused, when it reached Lexington, a great excitement. Whether it was written by a foe of "J. Brady," a school teacher there, or by a foe of his was not known. But the slaveholders took every thing for granted, and, therefore, determined to punish him.

At night—we quote here from the Louisville Courier—a party, "prepared," entered the lodgings of J. Brady, seized him, bound him, striped him naked, and through the chill air of the night, bore him to the court yard. What followed the Courier states:

A large quantity of pitch had been prepared for the occasion, with the contents of several bags of feathers. The clothing was speedily removed from the body of Brady, and the pitch applied to the thickness of an inch. Then the feathers were nicely planted, and Brady's head shaved closely to the scalp, save two locks near the forehead. He was then set loose, and charged to go and sin no more. More severe punishment would have been administered, had it not been for the wife of Brady, a beautiful and estimable lady.

Brady applied to a physician to remove the tar, but it was found utterly impossible. He left on the morning train for Covington, and the land of black Republicans.

Mr. Wells moved to indefinitely postpone election.

Motion lost.

Second ballot, Taylor 12; Sholes 10; Dunn 2; Harvey 1.

Mr. Sholes thanked those friends who had voted for him but declined being a further candidate.

3rd ballot, Taylor 12; Dunn 11; 11 Barber 1; Harvey 1.

Mr. Taylor said the vote given for him had een entirely unexpected and unsolicited.

He did not think himself as well qualified as some other Republican Senator.

He saw no prospect of an election at present.

He hoped the the matter would be postponed.

Motion to postpone prevailed, 23 ayes, all Republicans 12 noes, Democrats.

A communication was read from Board of Supervisors of Lafayette County praying for the removal of the County Seat of that County to Avon—Laid on the table.

Resolution inviting Prof Carr, to deliver a course of lectures—Adopted.

Bills passed to amend act attaching Columbia County to 98 judicial circuit; providing for postage of the House; to extend time for paying taxes in Clark County; to charter Koneneck joint stock association of Appleton.

Senate in Committee of the whole on Governor's Message.

Long discussion on excessive taxation—finally referred to Committee on Finances; other references made.

Bills introduced to amend Fox Lake and St. Croix R. R., and to authorize a further issue of bonds by the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R Co—both referred to R. R. Committee.

A CENTENNARIAN INDIAN CHIEF.—His Excellency O'Brien Skandogh, a Chief of the Six Nations, who was born in 1752, was in this city yesterday. This aged Chief, now 104 years of age, was sent to France to be educatted, previous to the Revolution. He returned to this country after going through the medical school in Paris, in company with the young Marquis de La Fayette, whom he followed through the wars of the American Revolution, and did service in that campaign. He was at the battle of Brandywine, where he attended upon Gen. La Fayette binding up his wounds, he received in the affair. During the war, he suffered, a bayonet wound in the right lung, which even now causes him uneasiness in case he takes a cold. Although more than a century has passed over his head, he is still hale and strong, erect and of lofty port. His Masonic brethren greeted the aged chieftain, and contributed to his necessities; for although so old he has not been all the time accumulating wordly gain. He was for many years at the head of the Six Nations, and a Chief of great influence.—Rolch. Democrat, 9.

POPULATION OF NEW YORK.—The report of the census of New York shows that the population of the State, on the first day of June last, was 3,470,057. This is an increase since 1845 of 865,564, and, since 1850, of 372,665.—There are 632,753 aliens included in the population. The number of voters in the State is as follows: Native, 516,745; naturalized, 135,076. Total, 651,821.

In the city of New York these were of native voters 46,113; naturalized voters 42,702. Total native born 355,430; foreign born 274,380.

Real Estate	$1,107,272,715
Personal Estate	294,012,564
Aggregate	$1,402,849,564

The following is the taxation on the about valuation:

State tax of 1¼ mills	$1,753,561 17
County Taxes	7,947,503 19
Town taxes	1,976,951 33
Total taxation	$11,678,015 69

This makes the rate of tax 83-10 mills upon every $1 of voluation.

SUFFOCATION BY CHARCOAL.—The Boone Co. (Indiana) Ledger, states that three interesting young ladies, on going to bed at a Mr. Hunt's, near North Salem, Hendricks county, a few evenings since, took a vessel of live charcoal into their bed room. On the next morning all were found dead.

☞ Forty-four codfishing vessels from Marblehead, the last season, employed 312 men, and landed 1,051,000 fish, weighing 42,000 quintals.

ACADEMY.—The Stevens Pt. Pinery says: At the village of Plover a single individual gave $500, towards establishing an Academy.

WHY WILL YOU SUFFER!

Read the testimony of Dr. H. P. LEONARD, Druggist, Fayette, C. H., Ala., January 15, 1853.

DEAR SIR:—Hoofland's German Bitters have done wonders in this section. A youth, a son of G. M. Hubbert, Esq., of this county, had been for several months under the care of our best practitioners without relief, and the case reported doubtful, and the young man, altho' scarcely able to get about, commenced with the Bitters. He found so much relief from the first bottle, that he continued to take it until a complete cure was effected. He is now perfectly well and stout.

All who use the Bitters are satisfied with them.

RICHMOND, July 9th, 1853.

Messrs. WM. S. BEERS & Co.:—

GENTLEMEN:—Considerations of duty to the afflicted alone prompt me to send you this voluntary testimonial to the great value of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, for that almost incurable disease, Scrofula.

Without being disposed, or deeming it necessary, to go into the particulars of the case, I can say that the astonishing results that have been produced by that medicine, on a member of my own family, and under my own observation and superintendence, after the skill of the best physicians had been exhausted, and all the usual remedies had failed, fully justify me in recommending its use to all who may be suffering from that dreadful malady.

I do not mean to say that it is adapted to all constitutions, or that it will afford the same relief in all cases:—for, of course, I can know nothing about that—but from what I have seen of the effects, I would not hesitate to use it in any and every case of Scrofula, with persons for whom I felt an interest, or over whom I could exercise influence or control. Respectfully Yours,

DRY GOODS PALACE ! !

CARPET ROOMS.
158 East Water Street.

COME to the Palace, oh, come there with me,
Where Fashion, 'mid splendor, still holds her levee,
And somebody tells you that Beauty is sold
To Youth or to Age, in exchange for gold;
And their Lady-like charms through life may prolong,
In robes like a Queen's, which sell for a song.
They've Shawls for the taste, and Shawls for the storm,
They've Cloaks which fall softly, so rich, and so warm;
They've Carpets of Wilton, of Velvet, and Brussels;
They've Laces, and 'Broideries, Ribbons, and Tassels;
They've so obre-hued Goods, for the weeping and sad
They've suits like the sunshine, for merry and glad;
They've fabrics for millions and hold their levee
For those who pay tribute, or come but to see.
If Palace of Dry Goods, so wondrous grand,
Can be aught but a fable, of old Fairyland;
But those who know WEVER, can't doubt for a minute
This glorious Palace, and all that is in it.
Yours, C. H. G.

Now I blush, indeed I do. What modest, married man would not? Yet I console myself with the idea that Beauty always pays tribute to Worth and Merit. Thanking sincerely yet humbly my fair contributor, I trust that by honesty, uprightness and my gentlemanly bearing, I may ever command her respect.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, } ss. In Probate.
MILWAUKEE CO. COURT. }

In the matter of the Estate of DARIUS DISBROW, deceased.

It appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, by the Petition of Edith Disbrow, Administratrix of the Estate of Darius Disbrow, deceased, that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hand of the said Administratrix to pay the debts outstanding against the said deceased, and the expenses of administration, and it is necessary to sell all the Real Estate of the said deceased for the payment of such debts, It is therefore ordered, That all persons interested in the said Estate appear before the undersigned, Judge of the County Court for said County, at the Probate Office, in the city of Milwaukee, on the 30th day of January, 1856 at ten o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any they have, why license should not be granted to the said Administratrix to sell so much of the Real Estate of the said deceased as may be necessary to pay such debts. And it is further ordered, That a copy of the above order be published in the Free Democrat, a newspaper printed in said city, for at least four successive weeks previous to the day of hearing the said application.

Dated this 14th day of December, 1855.

THE OLD EAGLE GOING IT WITH A RUSH

The Eagle
STEAM FOUNDRY!
OF
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street

IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planeing Machine or Shaping Machine, Turning Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities to the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competition in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this,
The Oldest Establishment in the State,
the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation throughout the country as their best recommendation, or it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next men. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Gauge and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Cups & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Guages, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

CHARLES PREUSSER,

TAKES PLEASURE IN ANnouncing to his friends and customers, and the Public generally, that he has removed to his new and elegant store, built by him expressly for his rapidly increasing business, on the corner of East Water and Mason streets, opposite the Walker House and Post Office, where he is receiving almost daily additions to his large stock of

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Ware, Fancy Goods,

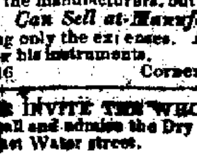

In fact, of everything usually to be found in a well assorted business of this kind.

As his stock is all new, of the latest and most fashionable styles, purchased direct from manufacturers and importers, and will be sold at a very small advance, he flatters himself that both Prices and Goods will give general satisfaction.

The repairing of Watches and Jewelry will be as heretofore, under my personal superintendence, and I have engaged help enough to do all work with dispatch.—Thankful for the kind patronage so liberally bestowed upon me during the past eleven years by the Milwaukee Public, my friends and customers may be assured that no effort of mine will be wanting, to merit a continuance of the same. (nov21n97y) CHAS. PREUSSER.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions see wrapper on the Box.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, &c.; and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—

W. L. Hopkins & Bro., H. Bosworth & Sons, Agents Druggists in Milwaukee, and by dealers generally throughout the country.

MISCELLANEOUS.

GREAT ARRIVAL
—OF—
PIANO FORTES, MELODEONS AND MUSICAL GOODS;
AT NO. 175 EAST WATER STREET.

THE SUBSCRIBER IS NOW RECEIVING AN EXtensive stock of superb Pianos, and other Musical Instruments, selected by himself from the best manufactories in the United States, and warranted equal to any in the world.

He would particularly invite the attention of the Musical public to an Entire New Style of Piano Forte, Invented and perfected by the late Jonas Chickering, and called the Parlor Grand, or Cecilian Piano.—This is probably the most perfect instrument of the Piano kind ever invented, combining as it does all the peculiarities of the full Grand Piano, without its disadvantages in regard to size. Also, several of Boardman & Gray's Improved Scale Pianos, with their new and ingenious invention—the Patent Corrugated Sounding board, universally admired and recommended by the musical profession. Twelve Gold Medals and Premiums have been awarded to these instruments within a few years past, and the demand for them from all parts of the world is entirely unprecedented.

☞ Every instrument sold by the subscriber has either been made expressly for him, or has been carefully selected from large stocks. He is therefore enabled to warrant his Piano Fortes in every particular, as being excelled by none.

☞ The subscriber is the only agent in this city for following Piano makers:
CHICKERING & SONS, Boston.
BOARDMAN & GRAY, Albany.
W. P. EMERSON, Boston.
FIRTH, POND & CO., New York.

☞ Prices the same as if purchased directly from the Manufacturers, and the money refunded if the Instrument does not prove satisfactory.

☞ The Lovers of Music are invited to examine this elegant stock of Musical instruments.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

WHEREAS, within the few months last passed, there have been by one or more malignant persons obstructions placed upon the track of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad, thereby endangering the lives of passengers and others traveling over said Road, and, whereas, the safety of the public requires the apprehension and punishment of all such persons so offending:—Therefore, I, WILLIAM A. BARSTOW, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, in pursuance of the power vested in me by Section 3, Chapter 9, of the Revised Statutes, do hereby offer the reward of Five Hundred Dollars!

For the apprehension and delivery or conviction of any perpetrator or perpetrators of any such offense as is above herein referred to, wherever the same may be committed on any Railroad within the limits of the State of Wisconsin.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

[L. S.] Done at Madison, this 3d day of September A. D. 1855.
By the Governor—
WILLIAM A. BARSTOW.
